John was born on March 30, 1945, son of the late Julius and Thelma (Sabo) Nagy. John graduated from Flint Central High School, Class of 1963. John enlisted in the United States Marine Corp and served his country proudly in Vietnam. Upon completing his time in the USMC, he worked for General Motors for 32 years mostly as a Forklift Driver at the Flint Engine plant until his retirement in 1999.

Anyone that knew John knew several things for certain.

John enjoyed fishing and hunting. He would spend numerous hours of his younger days at the guys deer camp in Caro and Alger or fishing with his brother Chuck on the lake. In his later years, he fished often as he could with family on his lake, deer hunted with his son Jeff at the Shiawassee Federal Refuge or a buddy's house or with his nephew Bill for spring turkeys. He enjoyed his time watching the Tigers, Lions, Red Wings and Michigan teams. Never one to hold back his opinion, he always cheered for the home team, win or lose. He was proud to have grown up on the eastside of Flint and was a very proud Central Indian. He told many stories of playing football against Northern on Thanksgiving Day, hiding fishing poles along the Flint River for after school trips and where the family grew up on Oregon Ave. John was also a very proud Marine, of his time in service and his brothers in the Corp.
